

Orange County Football Officials' Association

Policies and Procedures Manual

(Revised 3/14/19)

The Policies & Procedures Manual is a compilation of policies and procedures as enacted by the Executive Board of the Orange County Football Officials Association. This manual is made available to the membership to inform and educate them regarding the day-to-day management of the Association as well as the expectations and requirements of the Association's membership.

OFFICIAL'S ASSOCIATION MEMBERSHIP

1. Membership application and dues shall be submitted and paid via online registration and received by the Secretary/Treasurer no later than May 1st of the current year. A late fee of $50.00 shall be assessed for dues received after May 1st.
2. Any member, who hasn't paid his/her dues by June 1st, shall not be scheduled for any games until their dues have been paid.
3. Any crewmember that hasn't paid his/her dues by June 1st shall be removed from the crew for the current year. The Assignor shall fill this vacancy for the upcoming season, on a weekly basis, with a qualified member of the OCFOA.
4. Failure to provide proof of required Liability insurance will result in said official being denied assignments until proof of such insurance is provided.
 - A. Approved Liability providers include the National Association of Sports Officials, NASO or the National Federation of High Schools, NFHS.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

1. Any member of this Association in good standing – i.e. has kept all dues current, has passed all required exams and has maintained a satisfactory attendance record, may apply for and receive an approved leave of absence for up to one year without forfeiting his/her qualification status.
2. An application for a leave of absence must be by letter addressed to the President and Secretary of this Association stating the reason(s) for the request.
3. Upon returning to active membership, the official in question shall pay all current membership dues, pass the current year's summer exam and current year's qualification exam before they become eligible to officiate football games again.
4. If said official was on a crew, he/she does not automatically return to that crew but is eligible to be selected to be on a crew for the season following the leave of absence.
5. Any official on leave of absence for longer than one year will be treated as an official transferring in from another Association as far as eligibility to officiate and to be on a crew.

PERSONAL CONDUCT

1. All high schools are non-smoking and tobacco free environments. Any complaint filed by a school against an official for violation of this policy is an Ethics Committee matter.
2. On game day, consumption of ANY alcoholic beverage prior to the game is expressly forbidden. Any complaint filed by a school against an official for violation of this policy is an Ethics Committee matter and is grounds for disciplinary action up to and including dismissal from membership in this Association.
3. Use of any illicit drug(s) is expressly forbidden. Any complaint filed by a school against an official for violation of this policy is an Ethics Committee matter and is grounds for disciplinary action up to and including dismissal from membership in this Association.
4. Failure to show up for a game that has been accepted is an Ethics Committee matter and the official in question will be subject to penalties for such failure to honor the assignment unless having previously notified the Assignor or there was a legitimate emergency that prevented such notification.
5. If an official who is scheduled to work does not show up, or arrives after the scheduled opening kickoff, the other crewmember(s) shall call and notify the Assignor.
6. Failure to abide by the provisions of the Code of Ethics, this personal conduct policy, or any other act that would bring discredit to this Association is an Ethics Committee matter and is grounds for disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal from membership in this Association.

GAME ASSIGNMENTS AND COMPENSATION

1. All officials shall contact the home school prior to the day of the non-varsity game and confirm the status of the game directly from the Athletic Director or Head Coach. Speaking with anyone else is not sufficient.
2. No official shall switch games with another official without the approval of the Assignor. In the case of an emergency, the Assignor shall be notified as soon as practical of the situation.
3. For each scheduled game, the Referee shall contact all officials assigned to the game and all assignments shall be confirmed no later than 9:00 PM on Tuesday of the week of the game. Failure to confirm the assignment by the officials with the Referee by that date and time gives the Referee the option to replace said official(s) without notice, and the official(s) will not be paid for the game.
4. If the Assignor is contacted by a school and informed that the game to which an official has been assigned has been rescheduled, the Assignor will endeavor to contact the assigned official(s) prior to the rescheduled date and time to determine if the official(s) is/are able to accommodate the change. The Assignor has the right to replace the official(s) and the official(s) will not be entitled to compensation.
5. ALL officials working ANY games are doing so as INDEPENDENT CONTRACTORS. As such, game officials are not EMPLOYEES of the School, the California Interscholastic Federation, or the Orange County Football Officials' Association. Services rendered as an independent contractor do not come under the auspices of the Workers' Compensation Act.
6. The official, independent of the Association, must obtain insurance for liability and medical coverage. This coverage may be through the National Association of Sports Officials (NASO), the National Federation of State High School Associations (NFHS), or other means as decided by the individual official.

7. Payment of dues to the Orange County Football Officials Association does not guarantee the member to be assigned games to officiate. Assignments are at the discretion of the Assignor.
8. There are four (4) recognized and acceptable forms of game fee payment. The methods of payment are at the discretion of the school.

The methods of payment are:

1. The school may pay in cash at the game.
 2. The school may pay by check at the game.
 3. The school may ask the official to complete a pay voucher and W4. A check will be mailed. Allow 1-3 weeks for delivery of game fee payment. If an official refuses to sign a payment voucher or required tax documents, they will not be entitled to compensation.
 4. The school may pay via ArbiterPay, (formerly RefPay a division of Arbiter Sports. For this method, the official will have to complete an enrollment for online via Arbiter Sports.
9. Games assignments turned back to the assignor after acceptance will be subject to a fee of $3.00. Games declined when assignments are first issued due to an official not blocking the date will also be assessed this fee. The assignor reserves the right to waive the fee at his discretion. These fees will be collected by and paid to, the assignor and must be paid prior to the playoffs. This is considered a financial obligation to the association.

BUY-OFF PROCEDURES FOR SCHOOLS

- For varsity games, once an official has accepted a game assignment, both Schools retain the right to have the crew removed from the game through a buy-off procedure at ANY TIME prior to the game.
- A school, at the request of the Principal, may exercise this right by informing the Assignor of such decision and tendering a check to the Association for all five game fees.
- The school must also pay the game fees of the replacement crew.
- The bought-off crew will receive full compensation for the game which they were removed and if the Assignor needs these officials to work elsewhere, they may do so and receive compensation for that new game as well.

ASSOCIATION POLICY ON REDLINING

We accept Redline of officials with the following governed policy:

- a) Number per school (Limit 5 per school)
- b) Length of Redline (1 year max - if official did not work that school the last year there is no reason to have a redline - if we go longer than 1 year the redline request MUST be renewed).
- c) Good Cause - Written
- d) Letter from Principal
- e) The Official be made aware of the redline.
- f) Official cannot be redlined from a school he/she did not work the year before.
- g) If the Varsity Head Coach is new at the school, no redline can be accepted.
- h) Redlines must be submitted at the time the schedule is provided to the assignor.

UNIFORMS

1. All officials working ANY assigned varsity game, including 8-man games, regardless of game start time, shall wear the prescribed uniform as follows:

4. During a specified period, officials may wear wristbands, whistles and/or lanyards, or a specified patch as authorized by the Executive Board to recognize approved awareness or memorial causes.

5. No other attachments or adornments shall be worn on the officials’ uniforms.

GAME FILM/VIDEO/PHOTOGRAPHIC REVIEW

1. No official, other than the Instructional Chairman, his designee, or the Assignor shall review a video recording of another official's game for the purpose of an official review that is requested by a school, coach, or the California Interscholastic Federation.
2. The only exception to this policy is that the Ethics Committee, during the course of their investigation of an alleged ethics violation(s) by an official(s) may review any and all film, video, or photographic materials as necessary to discharge their duties.

NOTIFICATION TO MEMBERS OF MEETINGS AND AGENDA

1. The Board will provide notice of Board meetings directly to members by email no less than two weeks before the scheduled meeting;
2. The Board will provide the meeting agenda directly to the members by email 48 hours before the next scheduled meeting.

EJECTION PROCEDURE

1. If a coach or player is ejected, the official who issued the ejection is required to e-mail or fax a written report (available online at the OCFOA website) of the circumstances that surrounded the ejection to the CIF Liaison and the assignor within 24 hours of the event
2. If the referee/crew chief is not the one to have issued the ejection, he/she too shall file a report regarding the ejection with the CIF Liaison and the Assignor within 24 hours of the event
3. The CIF Liaison will file the notification directly with the CIF offices
4. Any and all questions regarding an ejection are to be directed to the CIF Liaison only and not to the officials involved in the ejection.

PLAYOFF QUALIFICATION

In order to qualify for placement on the Orange County Football Official's Association's Rating Committee Play-off list an official must:

1. Officiate a minimum of six (6) Varsity games (in Orange County) during the current year.
2. Be a member in good standing
3. Dues are current and the members have met the financial obligations imposed by the association.
4. Have an acceptable attendance record at Association meetings by having missed no more than one meeting (including credit for attending make-up meetings or attendance at other football association's meetings).
5. Passed the summer exam and the qualification exam with a minimum grade of 80% on each exam.
6. The Rating Committee shall submit to the Board for its approval, a list of qualified officials by position. This will include a playoff list that meets the specified needs of the CIF.
7. After approval the Board shall:
 - a. Forward the list to the OCFOA Assignor for use in assigning Play-Off games. No OCFOA official shall work consecutive CIF-SS Finals Games as assigned by the Association's Assignor unless said official is selected directly by the CIF-SS Office
 - b. Forward a list of the top 3 officials by position, or any other amount required, to the California Interscholastic Federation office for their use

CREW CHANGE RESTRICTIONS
